Robert Nobel concentrates his practice in defending insureds in personal injury and property damage actions involving premises, labor law, construction, toxic torts and products liability matters. In addition, Mr. Nobel's practice includes professional liability actions on behalf of architects, engineers, and attorneys. Before joining the firm, Mr. Nobel was an Assistant General Counsel to the New York City Department of Buildings, specializing in land use and zoning issues. Prior to that, he was an Assistant Corporation Counsel in the New York City Law Department, specializing in the defense of negligence actions as well as civil rights and Title VII violations.

Mr. Nobel received his Bachelors of Arts from the State University of New York at Binghamton in 1989 and his J.D. Degree, cum laude, from St. John's University School of Law in 1992, where he received the American Jurisprudence Awards for Excellence in both Constitutional Law and Real Property, and served as a member of the International Law Review and Moot Court. He is admitted to practice before the courts of the State of New York as well as the United States District Court for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York.
